Sample Interview Questions

1. What interests you about the community? Why would you like to practice medicine in this community?

2. Why did you choose gastroenterology? What do you like best about gastroenterology? What do you like least?

3. What are you looking for in a practice?

4. What staffing models have you been associated with in terms of support staff, nurses, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners? What are you most comfortable with?

5. Tell me about a time when you worked well with support and/or clinical staff to solve a specific problem or meet a patient need.

6. What is your personal philosophy about treating patients?

7. Tell me about a time when you managed a patient with a difficult personality.

8. Have you ever used alternative methods such as email, consults or group visits to allow patient access and meet patient needs? If yes, how did they work in practice?

9. What are the most important contributions you feel you have made to your current organization?

10. Where do you see yourself in the next five years? The next 10 years?

11. What things do you like to do when you are not being a doctor?